OVERVIEW

Honor and Design Awards are presented by AIA Tampa Bay to recognize outstanding accomplishments in architectural design, accomplishments and service to the profession and the community. They are presented at the Chapter's Annual Award Ceremony each fall to provide a forum for recognition.

Members are strongly encouraged to nominate deserving recipients and submit noteworthy design projects.

MEDAL OF HONOR

The Medal of Honor is the highest award available to an Architect member of the Chapter who, while in good standing for the past 15 years, has demonstrated continuous service above self to the Chapter, Community and the Profession of Architecture in the Most Distinguished manner.

Bestowment of the Medal of Honor, as determined by jury, may be reserved to uphold its integrity.

The Medal of Honor jury is to be comprised of the immediate three past recipients along with two past or current Board members, as appointed by the Executive Committee of the sitting board. Three is a quorum with one being an appointed board member.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining a candidate's qualifications that demonstrate at least five highlights from the nominee's period of eligibility with a minimum of one example that clearly demonstrates service above self to the Chapter, Community and the Profession of Architecture.

Award of the Medal of Honor by the current Board President shall take place at the annual awards ceremony. Sitting board members are eligible. Bestowment is limited to one person per year, and one time per person.

(Per the example nomination form at the back of this booklet). Written suggestions by the jury are acceptable as long as they comply with the nomination format. No individuals will be considered without a written nomination.

FIRM AWARD

The Firm Award is available to a chapter member firm that has for the past five years distinguished itself through; demonstrated consistent leadership and vision; proven leadership in advancing the profession through community service; enhancement of the built environment through design and implementation of works; stewardship of the profession's direction and mentoring of future professional's.

Bestowment of the Firm Award, as determined by jury, may be reserved to uphold its integrity.

The Firm Award jury is to be comprised of a firm representative of the immediate two past recipients along with three current board members, as appointed by the Executive Committee of the current sitting board. Three is a quorum. Any current sitting board member whose firm has been nominated may not participate on the jury.

Recipient selection shall be determined by two page written statement that clearly demonstrates nominee's exemplary compliance with the award criteria.

Although this is not intended to be a design award, it is criterion and as such, all nominees must include with their written statement a minimum of three projects in some brief - not to exceed 8.5"x11" format - to represent the nominee's body of work.

Nominations are encouraged by chapter members and firms may self-nominate. The current sitting board may solicit nominees.

Award of the Firm Award by the current Board President shall take place at the annual awards ceremony. Bestowment is limited to one firm per year, and one time per firm in a five year period.

BOB LEVISON AWARD

The Bob Levison Award is available to an Architect member of the chapter who, while in good standing for the past 10 years, has demonstrated continuous service above self through distinguished service in two of the three following: Chapter, Community, Profession of Architecture.

Bestowment of the Bob Levison Award, as determined by jury, may be reserved to uphold its integrity.

The Bob Levison Award jury is to be comprised of the immediate three past recipients along with two past or current Board members as appointed by the Executive Committee of the current sitting board. Three is a quorum with one being an appointed board member.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining a candidate's qualifications that clearly demonstrates at least two examples of service above self.

Award of the Bob Levison Award by the current Board President shall take place bi-annually in even years at the annual awards ceremony. Sitting board members are eligible. Bestowment is limited to one person per year, and one time per person.

About Robert H. (Bob) Levison:

Bob Levison was a Clearwater based architect who provided notable leadership and service to the AIA. He was a recipient of the Florida Association of the AIA's Gold Medal, their highest honor which recognizes distinguished leadership and service to the association. He also received the Pullara State Award in 1963 and was a recipient of the AIA Kemper Award. Bob was the president of the Florida Central Chapter of the AIA, 1957 – 59 and AIA Florida president from 1961 to 1963. He was Florida regional director from 1963 to 1966.

PULLARA AWARD

The Pullara Award is available to an Architect member of the chapter in good standing, who has demonstrated exemplary service above self to the chapter and the community.

Bestowment of the Pullara Award, as determined by jury, may be reserved to uphold its integrity.

The Pullara Award jury is to be comprised of the immediate three past recipients along with two past or current Board members, as appointed by the Executive Committee of the current sitting board. Three is a quorum with one being an appointed board member.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining a candidate's qualifications that demonstrate at least two examples with a minimum of one example that clearly demonstrates service above self.

Award of the Pullara Award by the current Board President shall take place bi-annually in odd years at the annual awards ceremony. Sitting board members are eligible. Bestowment is limited to one person per year, and one time per person.

About Anthony (Tony) Pullara:

This award was established in the memory of Anthony L. Pullara. Tony Pullara was devoted to service over and above his official capacities. Pullara gave full time to the profession of architecture and was active Regional Director of the AIA representing Florida. While he was the state legislative chairman, he carried on an exhaustive schedule working on legislative programs. Awards in his honor have been established at the state and local levels which is a testament to his commitment to the AIA and the profession.

KELLEY – EMERGING PROFESSIONAL AWARD

The Kelley Emerging Professional Award is available to an Associate or Architect member of the chapter who, while in good standing for the past two years, is less than 10 years out of school or beyond licensure, respectively. Nominees for this award shall have demonstrated exemplary service above self to champion the causes and issues of Associate members and young Architects within the chapter, local community organizations and beyond.

Bestowment of the Kelley Emerging Professional Award, as determined by jury, may be reserved to uphold its integrity.

The Kelley Emerging Professional Award jury is to be comprised of the immediate three past recipients along with two past or current Board members, as appointed by the Executive Committee of the sitting board. Three is a quorum with one being an appointed board member.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining a candidate's qualifications that demonstrate at least two examples from the nominee's period of eligibility with a minimum of one example that clearly demonstrates service above self.

Award of the Kelley Emerging Professional Award by the current Board President shall take place at the annual awards ceremony. Sitting board members are eligible. Bestowment is limited to one person per year, and one time per person.

About Christopher Shawn Kelley, AIA:

This award is in honor of Christopher S. Kelley, AIA who passed away on Saturday May 26 2012 at the age of 39. Christopher was the first Associate member to serve in an AIA Tampa Bay Board position. Kelley graduated from the University of Florida with honors, earning a Bachelor of Design in 1995 and a Master of Architecture in 1997. An active member of the AIA, he went on to become the first Regional Associates Director from the Florida and Caribbean Region for the AIA's National Associates Committee. He continued his service to the architecture community through his efforts in helping to lead the Young Architects Forum where he served as chairman in 2009.

During his career, he received several awards, including the 2010 Young Architect Award. Kelley was also a husband, father, son and friend. "Christopher saw the world as a place to engage in and his career as a means to invest in his profession. His discerning guidance, insightful advice and wonderful sense of humor made a difference in, and influenced the lives of countless young architects. With thoughtful leadership, unwavering enthusiasm and an inspirational style, Christopher set a standard of excellence in everything he did that made us all want to be a better person", recalls AIA colleague and friend Mickey Jacob, FAIA.

AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

The Award of Excellence is available to a non-member of the chapter who, during the past two years, has demonstrated outstanding support to the mission of the chapter, built environment or architectural profession. The intent is that nominees for this award should be a layperson to the profession, however it may be awarded to an Architect, AIA member or not.

Bestowment of the Award of Excellence, as determined by selection by the current sitting Board of Directors, may be reserved to uphold its integrity.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining a candidate's qualifications that demonstrate at least two examples from the nominee's period of eligibility with a minimum of one example that clearly demonstrates service above self.

Award of the Award of Excellence by the current Board President shall take place at the annual awards ceremony. Bestowment is limited to one person per year, and one time per person.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD

The President's Award is bestowed at the discretion of the current sitting Board President. Bestowment of the award is encouraged to be limited to one award per year, per individual or group to uphold its integrity. ARTISAN AWARD

The Artisan Award is available to any member of the construction industry that has demonstrated through personal craftsmanship or proven responsibility for the work of a specific trade within a building. This individual must be nominated by a chapter member, with the work having been completed under their observation.

Bestowment of the Artisan Award, as determined by selection by the current sitting Board of Directors, is encouraged to be distributed annually.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining candidate qualifications and at least two photographs illustrating the individual's work.

CONTRACTOR'S AWARD

The Contractors Award is available to a licensed general contractor that has accomplished an outstanding built result while exemplifying a genuine interest in encouraging and affecting outstanding workmanship and craftsmanship on a built project. This individual must be nominated by a chapter member.

Bestowment of the Contractors Award, as determined by selection by the current sitting Board of Directors, is encouraged to be distributed annually.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination explaining candidate qualifications and at least two photographs illustrating the individual's work.

ALLIED MEMBER AWARD

The Allied Members Award is available to an Allied member of the chapter, in good standing for the past two years, who is not an Associate or Architect, has demonstrated through interest, participation and concern, dedication to the promotion and contribution to the mission of the chapter above and beyond the normally expected participation of an Allied member.

Bestowment of the Allied Members Award, as determined by selection of the current sitting Board of Directors, is encouraged to be distributed annually.

Recipient selection shall be determined by written nomination and may be made by any member.

INSTRUCTIONS TO NOMINATING COMMITTEE/JURY

You have been asked to participate in the Nominating Committee or Jury that recommends the winner of an AIA Tampa Bay Honor Award. A detailed description of the award criteria and a list of past recipients can be found in an earlier section of this book. Your time and effort is crucial to the on-going success of the Awards Program and very much appreciated.

Please note that you are not required to make an award if you do not feel compelled to do so. Should you choose to go forward with the Award, your ranking will be reviewed by the current AIA Tampa Bay Board for validation.

Jurors are strongly encouraged to make at least one nomination for the award. All nominations must be in writing and submitted to the chapter headquarters by the advertised deadline.

JURY MEETING AGENDA

1. Review of all written nominations
2. Review of nomination criteria in relation to specific requirements of the award outlined in this book.
3. Discuss each Nominee with committee/jury members
4. Rank Nominees
5. Draft Final Recommendation to the Board with jury comments about why the individual or firm is deserving.

DESIGN AWARDS

The Design Awards Program recognizes excellence in design by the architectural profession and is presented by AIA Tampa Bay, a Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. These Awards are intended to promote public consciousness of the built environment through recognizing distinguished works of architecture.

Who: Design Award submittals are open to built or unbuilt architectural projects of all types and sizes, and can be submitted by individuals or firms either residing in or whose submitted project is located in the chapter's seven-county region. All designs must have been produced within the past ten years. The awards are open to students and AIA members. Non-members may also submit for double the fee paid by AIA members.

Jury: The awards are juried by a panel which includes a non-competing, award-winning, out-of-area architect who has not served as design awards jurors for at least the past 10 years. The jury members are selected by the design awards committee.

What: An Award deemed suitable by the committee and board. Multiple Honor and Merit Awards may be awarded in each category as entries are solely and individually weighted on their value of design excellence. However, only one project will be awarded the top award – the H. Dean Rowe, FAIA Award for Design Excellence.

When: Presented at the Annual Award Ceremony by the current Board President assisted by the Design Awards Chair

How: Primary submissions components will be electronic and will be submitted online. Entry boards may also be required. Specific instructions will be emailed upon registration.

HONOR AWARD / MERIT AWARD

Two award levels may be recognized by the jury: "Honor Award" awarded to projects which demonstrate the highest standards of design and innovation through a commitment to excellence in architectural design – the higher of the two categories. And, "Merit Award" for project which demonstrate a commitment to excellence in architectural design.

H. DEAN ROWE, FAIA AWARD FOR DESIGN EXCELLENCE

The top honor of the AIA Tampa Bay Design Awards awarded annually, recognizes built projects by licensed individuals or firms that may include architectural projects of any type from any category. It has been established in honor of the late H. Dean Rowe, FAIA, and recognizes work by AIA members that represents the highest level of design excellence awarded by AIA Tampa Bay.

About H. Dean Rowe, FAIA (1934 – 1997)

is named for the late Harold Dean Rowe, a fellow of the American Institute of Architects and long time AIA Tampa Bay member. Dean was a nationally-recognized architect whose impressive career was highlighted by his commitment to mentoring young talent. He was the founder and president of Rowe Architects Incorporated. He was honored by the Florida Association of the American Institute of Architects with its 1996 Firm Award. Dean was a recipient of the FAIA's highest award to an individual, the Gold Medal and received the Florida Central Chapter's Medal of Honor for Design Excellence. Dean also served as the Chairman of the State Board of Architecture, Chairman of the State Coordinating Committee and member of the National Coordinating Committee for the Intern Development Program and advisor and mentor to numerous young architects. He was President of the Florida Association of the American Institute of Architects and was a Board Member and Trustee of the Historic Tampa - Hillsborough County Preservation Board, Member of the Barrio Latino/Ybor City and member of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Dean was a member of the Professional Liaison Committees and an Adjunct Professor, juror and critic at both the University of Florida and University of South Florida Schools of Architecture. Dean was instrumental in bringing to Tampa USF's School of Architecture and Community Design. In recognition of Dean's contributions to the AIA, the profession, the community and his award-winning career, AIA Tampa Bay named this award in his honor in 1998.
